

Whether you are brand new to your public housing agency's board of commissioners or have served on the board for long time, it can be helpful to spend some time getting to know the expertise and composition of your board.

You can either complete this worksheet individually or as a group. If you are completing this individually, you may need to reach out to board members in order to get to know them better. The executive director or other executive staff will also be helpful resources for completing this worksheet.

Type your responses in the boxes below. Save or print this document for your own reference.
